PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the production of pork in South Dakota is of major importance in that it affords our farm population with a substantial part of their income; and

WHEREAS, the proper producing, handling, and marketing of hogs and pork is a factor in the economic standing of our state; and

WHEREAS, the palatability and nutritional value of pork should be brought to the attention of our entire state for better health and tastier meals,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Joe Foss, Governor of the State of South Dakota, in order to properly designate the importance of producing, feeding, and marketing of hogs and the distribution of pork and pork products, do hereby declare and proclaim the month of October as and respectfully urge all organizations and citizens of our state to participate in all programs during that month, that we may place even greater emphasis on pork and pork products for better health and tastier meals.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 28th day of September, 1955.
